Regional Centre Shimla

A Brief Historical Background

Himachal Pradesh is a tiny hilly state, having difficult terrain and covering geographical area of 55673 sq.kms. In the mid-eighties, the higher education spectrum of the Himachal Pradesh was catered primarily by the Himachal Pradesh University and a few colleges established in different districts of the State. Due to the difficult terrain and predominant rural populace, most of the aspirants, particularly the females and disadvantages groups, of Himachal Pradesh had to drop out after attaining the school education. As the distance education wing [presently, International Centre of Distance Education and Open Learning (ICDEOL)] of Himachal Pradesh University was not able to reach out to the remotest and inaccessible areas, the distance learning was not able to make sufficient inroads into these areas.

With the advent of IGNOU in 1985, the possibilities of making effective interventions of open learning in the higher education scenario of the State of Himachal Pradesh has arisen. To begin with, three study centres in Government Colleges at Shimla, Mandi and Solan were established in 1987, with addition of Study Centre at Government College, Hamirpur in 1988. However, there appeared to be a need to develop an effective network of study centres in the State in order to spread the benefits of open learning system, in general and IGNOU programmes, in particular to the hitherto unreached areas. This necessitated the establishment of a Regional Centre in Himachal Pradesh to coordinate and propagate IGNOU programmes in the region.

With the consent and active cooperation of the Government of Himachal Pradesh, a Regional Centre at Shimla (HP) was established in 1989, which catered to the States of Himachal Pradesh, Punjab and Jammu & Kashmir and Union Territory of Chandigarh. However, with the establishment of Regional Centres in other States, the jurisdiction of the IGNOU Regional Centre, Shimla was re-defined to the State of Himachal Pradesh in 1991. Over the years, the IGNOU Regional Centre, Shimla has been able to expand the network of study centres in every district and remotest/tribal areas of Himachal Pradesh and popularize IGNOU programmes, which is reflected in the growth of enrolment in the region.

Ms. Nishu Lal
BA- 083682597

I would like to thank whole heartedly IGNOU for that I am today. My life comes to standstill on 17th August, 2012 when my husband passed away. With my two daughters, I was perplexed which way to go. At that point of time, IGNOU showed me the way, 21 years ago I left my studies when I got married. I again started from there, I pursued my studies did BA from IGNOU. Now I am working in Auckland House School Shimla and supporting my family. Thanks to IGNOU and all the staff members who supported me and showed me the way. I feel “failing down is a part of life, getting back up is living.”

Being belonging to a poor family and a physically challenged person, she almost lost her hopes of getting higher education, after completing 10+2 from a local Government Sr. Secondary School.

Incidentally, she happened to visit the awareness camp organized by the local study centre (1141D) that promoted her to chase her dream. With the encouragement of the Coordinator of IGNOU Study Centre, she took admission in the BA programme of IGNOU for January, 2016 session. Enroll No.: 187068664

I Megha a Sharma feeling great to share my amazing experience about Master's in psychology from IGNOU. I joined the course in 2018 and I was excited about the course because I was getting the opportunity for doing excel in my own area of interest but at the same time, I was not sure about the process and assistant that is I was expecting for. But even initially I found that the content was so in formative, interesting and valuable and the evaluation system is also very standardized and fair to all. Which I like them so that Evaluation system (theory and practical) both covered the whole syllabus effectively. The project guide was also very cooperative he guided me in every problem, I was faced while completion of my project. Internship experience was also very knowledgeable and practically strong. I passed my course with distinction, Scored 85%. I am very happy with my performance and experience. Thank you every one for guiding me throughout the course.
